Nestled in the rolling hills of Western Kentucky at the junction of the Tennessee, Ohio and Cumberland rivers, Winghaven Lodge is more than just another hunting lodge. It's an outdoor destination and the hunting experience of a lifetime.

You can bring associates from work and have team building exercises, or you can begin a rich tradition with your children and grandchildren of wing shooting.

fast paced wingshooting! The only additional charges are for license and gratuities for the hostesses and guides.

Incredible accommodations and gourmet southern-style meals are included. Guides, dogs, even guns and ammo (for our international visitors) are provided if you need them. Your only responsibility... load, aim and hit the target. We even clean and pack your game. Whether you're an experienced hunter or you're hunting for the first time, we take care of every detail.

And when it's time for the hunt, our expert guides will weave you through 7000 acres of prime upland habitat, groomed to be the perfect wingshooting ground. With 12 large hunting areas to choose from, you will never hunt the same place twice.

The facilities at Winghaven Lodge are fine enough for weddings, yet comfortable enough for you and your hunting companions. It's the perfect place to entertain your best clients and have their undivided attention for a few days.

Most of our clients are hard drivers, running businesses, facing the daily pressures of being in charge. We understand that sometimes you need the ability to go into neutral... let someone else drive for a while. But you still need to maintain a level of activity that allows you to feel good about the day. That's why you're going to love Winghaven Lodge.

Our hunts are ALL INCLUSIVE! All you need is a shotgun, a pocket full of shells and an appetite for

Choose from unlimited quail or combination hunts which include Pheasants, Chukar, Hungarian Partridge and Quail. After a long day in the field relax in the lodge in comfort with country gourmet dining! Or you can add excitement to your trip when you accompany one of our experienced guides to call in a bobcat or coyote, or grab a fishing rod and enjoy some time fishing for large mouth bass and crappie! Also offered is great flooded timber duck hunting, watch from a comfortable blind nestled in the flooded brush as dozens of mallards and wood ducks fall into the trees! Let us show you why Winghaven has been described by so many hunters as "Destination Outdoors".
